REPERITION OF THE CELEBRATION OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR OF THE CITY.—The pupils of the Christian Sunday Schools, corner of Fourth and Walnut, and Grayson and Eleventh streets, gave a very interesting celebration of Washington's birthday, on the night of the 22d of February, in Masonic Temple.
His Honor J. M. Delph, the Mayor, at the close of the entertainment, moved that the children be requested to repeat the celebration for the benefit of the poor of the city.
This motion was passed by storm by the immense crowd in the hall.

In compliance with the request, we are happy to say, that on Tuesday evening next, in the large hall of Masonic Temple, the entertainment will be repeated. Some of the bright speakers, both male and female, have been engaged, so that the entertainment may be rendered more interesting and varied by the introduction of more music, instrumental and vocal. Our music-loving society will be pleased to learn that Miss Woodman and Mr. Whipple, together with other amateur musicians, will render some of their sweet pieces during the evening.

Tickets can be had of L. A. Civill, E. M.
Stone, M. C. Ramsey, and the children and friends of the Sunday School, and it is to be hoped that our citizens will fill the house to overflowing.

diers died in general hospitals in this city

A Word to Newspaper Readers.
The Daily Morning Democrat and Evening News supply all the dispatches, local and general news. Those who wish to keep posted with the stirring events of the times, should be supplied with both editions.
The morning edition costs twenty-five (25) cents for every two weeks, and the evening edition fifteen (15) cents for two weeks.
This places a paper within the reach of all.

Two hundred cases and cartons of first class boots and shoes will be sold tomorrow (Monday) morning at 10 o'clock, at the auction room of Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co., a good line of ladies' hating, Congress and lace boots, with an entire fresh assortment of ladies' and misses' calf, goat, and kid boots will also be sold.

We were really surprised to see the samples of china, decorating in all styles, at Gay's China Palace, corner Fourth and Green.

Messrs. Green & Green have now on hand the largest and most elegant stock of hats and caps ever offered in this market, all entirely new in style, and of the best qualities. Their arrangements are such that they are in immediate receipt of all new styles. All the "novelties" of the season will be found at their place as soon as they leave the hands of the manufacturers.

Particular attention is solicited to their stock of military hats, caps, and trimmings.
They are thoroughly posted in this branch of business, and keep a complete assortment of the most superior qualities. All who desire a good article should call at the corner of Fourth and Main.

Our friend George Gay, of China Palace, reports, corner Fourth and Green, still continues to receive large assortments of coal oil lamps, some of which are really splendid in style.

ESPECIAL NOTICE TO BUTLERS AND DRASs.—We have now in store, and will be receiving daily, a superior article of Western Reserve, Hamburg, and English dried cigs, dried beef, beef tongue, extra spiced pigs' feet, Bologna, sausage, figs, almonds, filberts, Brazil nuts, sardines, No.
1 rice, herring, 600 boxes No. 1 smoked herring, sour krum, white beans, new fall sugar-cured bacon, breakfast bacon, 100 barrels prime hominy, 50 casks old hams and shoulders, choice and ribbed sides (that will be sold very low), 350 sacks No. 1 Pennsylvania buckwheat flour, potatoes, onions, &c., all of which will be sold low by General Commission Merchants, 226 West Main street.

Spring stock just received at Gay's China Palace, corner Fourth and Green, consisting of white, band and decorated French china, large stock of out and pressed glass, and a very large assortment of Queensware.

We have in store and to arrive—200 bags Rio coffee, 600 kegs nails, assorted sizes, 100 barrels Baltimore yellow sugar, 200 casks Manila cordage, 200 boxes star and tallow candles, 100 boxes tobacco, various brands, Also, wooden ware, spades, indigo, madder, cotton baling, rope, &c., &c., for sale low for cash or country produce.

GLAZEBROOK, Bro. & Co., Main st., bet. Seventh & Eighth.

The finest coal oil in the city, at sixty cents per gallon, for sale at Gay's China Palace, corner Fourth and Green.

KIDNEY DISEASES.—At this season of the year diseases of the kidneys and bladder prevail to a great extent, and the best recommendations should be sought for to arrest them.
Our best physicians have always recommended the Extracts of Buchu, which are valuable, and followed by no bad effects.
Call at Raymond & Taylor's, 74 Fourth street, for Helmbold's Concentrated Extract of Buchu and Hartshorn's Compound Extract of Buchu.

At a time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, such as, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co. have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office, on Main street, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory, on Fulton, above Preston street.

WANTED.—A few more men to fill up J.
R. Watkins' company in Col. Den's battalion of Provost Guard. Recruiting office corner of Sixth and Grayson streets. This company is composed of a fine body of men.
A few more such, and the company will be complete.

Large lots of fresh timothy and clover seed, blue grass and orchard grass; also, all kinds of garden seeds, for sale by W. B. Wilson, fe26 d2m Main st., bet. Third and Fourth.

WANTED.—A woman to do general housework, washing, ironing, &c. Inquire at this office.

UNDEPOSITED MONEY.—All deposited monies received for subscriptions will be taken only at its current rates by the brokers.

General Order No. 13.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF THE ORIO, LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 24, 1862.

Major F. E. Flint, 16th U. S. Infantry, commanding Louisville barracks, is invested with the control of all detachments and companies of soldiers and individual officers and men arriving in the city of Louisville.
They will report to him immediately on their arrival in the city.

Major Flint will see that all parties, detachments, and individuals, as named above, are facilitated in the accomplishment of their business, and that they then proceed to join their proper commands at the earliest date practicable.

The Provost Marshal will fill any regulation for guards made by Major Flint for the execution of the duty herein assigned him.

By command of Brig. Gen. Buell, James B. Fay,

General McClellan.

In reply to the assertions of the New York Tribune and other papers of that class, a correspondent of the World sends the following communication:

Nearly three months ago General McClellan unfolded to Mr. Lincoln his plan of campaign, which is now showing the enemy to death. The President gave it profound attention, and, with admiration, approved it. He then ordered the advance, and the army moved forward. The plan was simple, and the execution was perfect. The army moved forward, and the enemy was defeated. The plan was simple, and the execution was perfect. The army moved forward, and the enemy was defeated.

All promised, himself made it ready for their several allotments of the program on or before this date. You know that he has done this. The whole country is now in a state of excitement. The army is moving forward, and the enemy is being defeated. The plan was simple, and the execution was perfect. The army moved forward, and the enemy was defeated.

Mr. Johnson learned on his way out that two regiments and one battalion of rebels held Cumberland Gap. Gen. Carter, with the advance of Gen. Thomas' division, was at Cumberland Gap, fifteen miles distant, on Saturday last, and it was thought would pass through another gap five miles distant, and not fortified, and thus take the rebel forces in the rear.

Mr. Johnson informs us that although the Union sentiment of East Tennessee is kept down by superior force, the people there await with confidence the advance of the Government forces to raise up and add them in the restoration of free speech and of the rights of which they have been deprived. When he left they had heard of the Council of War, and of the election of the President.
